Dear Alumnus:

We are celebrating our third year of Operation: L.A.W.S. (Law Alumni Working with Students), a mock-interview program designed to help prepare current students to transition into life after graduation while at the same time, exposing them to the variety of career paths available for today's legal professionals. You can help by following three steps:

1. Complete the attached form including your area of practice (we will try to match students interests to your expertise). Recruiting for the program will occur through mid-February.
2. Once matched, you will receive sample questions and tips on how to best assist your assigned students. Interviews will take place Feb. 8-19, 2010. The student is responsible for contacting you to arrange the appointment and to travel to you.
3. The program will culminate in a CLE program, "The Internet, Blogs, and Social Networking – Legal and Ethical Issues for Lawyers and Judges" on Tuesday, February 23 from 4:00-5:00 p.m. in the Wynne Courtroom. A complimentary reception with students will follow in the Conour Atrium.

CLE Program:

May a lawyer and a judge be friends on Facebook? Can a lawyer befriend a witness online in order to find impeachment evidence against him? Can a lawyer or judge discuss any aspects of a pending case on a blog or networking page? This one-hour presentation will highlight some of the relevant laws and issues involved in the use of these immensely popular tools.

will count as one hour of ethics CLE, pending approval*

Cost – complimentary for members of the IU School of Law-Indianapolis Alumni Association; non-member graduates are $30/person (includes a one-year membership to the Alumni Association.)

Parking – complimentary parking for those attending the CLE and reception will be available at the Indiana History Center parking lot, located just east of Inlow Hall.
