
INDIANA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW - INDIANAPOLIS
2007 LATIN AMERICA LAW SUMMER PROGRAM
LA PLATA, ARGENTINA
MAY 16 - JUNE 20, 2007

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. This program is organized and administered by the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis in cooperation with various Latin American institutions. The program is described in the information package or brochure, copies of which have been sent or given to the applicants.
2. The right is reserved to cancel the program prior to departure or to alter it at any time if the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis determines that circumstances, including lack or sufficient enrollment, require such cancellation or alteration. In case of cancellation by the University full refund of all fees paid will constitute full settlement with the enrollee.
3. Neither the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis, its directors and employees, nor the Latin American Law Summer Program and its supporting institutions or its program staff shall be liable for any loss, damage, injury, delay, irregularity, or additional expense arising from the acts or omissions of any providers of services or accommodations, or due to strike, war, civil disturbances, weather, quarantines, sickness, government restrictions or regulation, or from any other cause whatsoever. The program enrollees, by signing this statement of conditions, waive any such claim against the aforementioned agencies and persons.
4. The enrollee further agrees as follows:
 - a. That the enrollee is covered by a valid health insurance plan or will obtain insurance by the time of departure for the program, and that the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis, Latin American Law Summer Program, along with its supporting institutions, and their directors and employees, are released from any and all responsibility and expense resulting from any health or accident problems incurred by the enrollee in transit to and from the program and during the program.
 - b. That the enrollee will comply with the Indiana University Code of Student Ethics and the Amendments applicable to the law school. Each student's personal conduct and behavior during the Program reflects upon the student, the law school and the La Plata University. Acceptable conduct is defined, in part, by the laws and customs of the Republic of France and other countries visited, and the student agrees to respect these laws, customs and regulations. Penalties for illegal activity, particularly the possession, use or dealing in illegal drugs, are very strict in South America. Offenders can expect disciplinary action from the law school and a significant jail sentence.
 - c. That the enrollee will have sufficient funds (a minimum of $950 is recommended) over and above the cost of the program to maintain the enrollee and to provide for emergencies.
 - d. That your acceptance into the program, the non-refundable $250 registration fee is to be paid within seven days of acceptance, unless other arrangements have been made in writing with by the Director of the program.

- e. That the enrollee will not withdraw from the program after the application has been accepted, respectively will forego any refunds of fees paid except in cases of certifiable personal medical emergency.
 - f. That these general conditions apply to any and all family members who may accompany the enrollee for any portion of the program.
 - g. That the enrollee has read and understood the conditions set forth above and in the information package or brochure.
5. The enrollee certifies that the enrollee has a valid health insurance plan which will cover the enrollee while the enrollee is at the program and while the enrollee is traveling to and from the program. Proof of insurance is required two weeks prior to departure. The name and address of the insurance carrier of this plan is

Name of Company _____

Address _____

Policy Number _____

DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT: The program fee is $5,200. A $250 deposit is required within seven days of acceptance of this application (check made payable to Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis). This fee is NONREFUNDABLE except for certifiable personal medical emergency. The balance of payment ($4,950) is due on or before April 30, 2007.

Each student applicant must arrange to have a letter sent from the Dean of the student's school certifying good standing. Students must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.3 on a 4.0 scale to be eligible to attend this program. Attorney applicants must submit evidence of good standing to practice in an American or foreign jurisdiction.

Signature _____

Date _____