Dear Law Professor:

Be a part of Center for Alcohol Policy's Second Annual Essay Contest and spread the news! I encourage you to post the enclosed flyer and share this opportunity with your students and colleagues.

- The topic is: "State Regulation of Alcohol is Important Because..."
- The deadline for entries is November 18, 2009. Winners will be announced in December.
- Cash prizes will be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners in the amounts of $5,000, $2,500 and $1,000 respectively.

As you likely know, when Prohibition was repealed in 1933, the 21st Amendment put alcohol control in the hands of the states. Since then, the debate surrounding alcohol regulation has been robust, and it is important that Americans continue to have a vigorous dialogue examining the impact of alcohol regulation in this country.

Last year, the Center for Alcohol Policy (CAP) Essay Contest received a great response and triggered intellectual exploration of the 21st Amendment and how it impacts society today. The winning essays from last year can be read at www.centerforalcoholpolicy.org.
