Attach to this application the following:

1. Current resume – please include references.
2. A writing sample demonstrating your skills of legal analysis.

Priority will be given to applicants demonstrating a commitment to the research and study of law and state government. Briefly describe academic or professional experience with state government or state government law.

Briefly describe issues or areas of interest in law and state government you would like to explore as a Program on Law and State Government Fellow. Understand that you need not commit to any specific area of study for the fellowship at this time. Working together with the Director of the Program on Law and State Government, a topic of study and research will be chosen. You may use the space provided below or attach a statement. Your statement should not exceed two pages.

This completed form, together with your resume, legal writing sample, and any other attachments, should be submitted to Faith Long.
